How to submit your seminar idea for consideration:

To be considered, your program abstract must reach JNC Seminars Headquarters at the address below by February 15, 2008. Any submissions received after this date will not be eligible for consideration.

As shown on the Submission Form on the next page, your entry should include:

Please keep this in mind as you prepare your submission. In addition to the completed form, please include any handouts, video/audio tapes, or other materials that will be used in your seminar.

How seminars will be selected:

- Timeliness of content.
- Thought provoking nature of subject.
- Relevance of content to sound management and business practices.
- Focus and clarity of presentation (organization of materials, directness of message, etc.).
