October 2001

Business Sales

The October 2001 lunch meeting will be held at the Presidio Grill. Our speaker, Don Chaney will talk about tax and legal considerations of selling a business including viewpoints for both the seller and buyer. This meeting will provide a deeper and more extensive understanding of contract negotiations and drafting.

Don Chaney, a lawyer and CPA practicing in Tucson has been a sole practitioner since 1979. He provides services to small and medium size Arizona businesses focusing on business formation and operations as well as estate planning. Don is the author of a comprehensive text entitled "Arizona Law of Closely Held Business".

Approved for 1 hour of CPE (Continuing Professional Education).

The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants (AWSCPA) is a national organization dedicated to advancing the professional interests and careers of women CPA's. AWSCPA offers in-depth support in five important areas: advocacy, networking, leadership, training, education and public awareness. Full membership is available to anyone who holds a valid CPA certificate. Associate membership is available to all who have passed the CPA exam and student subscriptions are available in the Friends Program for those working toward certification and those pursuing degrees in the accounting program. If you are interested in hearing more about the local affiliate or joining our organization, please contact Deborah Hutchinson at dh1202@aol.com, our Tucson VP of Membership.
