Our program will focus on addressing the need to plan for the unexpected as well as the expected. Women need to feel comfortable that they can be in control and have assets to retire with, insurance to cover the unexpected and Long Term Care for the people they love. What are the correct steps to take? Let's explore them together in this informational seminar. We will cover the need to know topics and get you the answers.

Marsha Golla-McCarthy has been in the insurance and financial service professional for over 15 years. Her goal is to help individuals and closely-held businesses to reach their financial goals. Representing only the finest providers of life, disability and long term care, she can meet the needs of a diverse population. Marsha was raised in New Jersey, graduated from Wittenberg University and is constantly taking educational course to keep abreast of the current offerings to consumers. She has two grown children and lives on the south shore.

MassMutual is a corporate sponsor of the American Woman's Society of CPAs
