MICROSOFT WINDOWS 7 UPDATE with BOBBY BLIVEN

Speaker: Bobby Bliven of Microsoft has over 9 years of Microsoft Industry experience and received his MCSE in NT4 in 2000. Bobby spent over 4 years working for a software/hardware distributor where he did everything from instruction, installations, implementations, project management, pre-sales, to sales. More recently Bobby came from Quest Software where he functioned as a Senior System Consultant in the Sales Department. Bobby has spent time in Fortune 500 and 100 companies performing presentations, consulting, demos, POC, and most importantly showing the business value of software. Currently Bobby works at Microsoft specializing in Windows 7, OS deployments, and optimizing the desktop for enterprise customers. He was most recently on stage with Jeff Raikes, President, Microsoft Business Division, performing demos for the Los Angeles 2007 Business launch of Vista that had over 2000+ attendees.

We are proud to announce that Microsoft is a Corporate Sponsor of AWSCPA.

Some of the topics on the agenda are:

- Windows 7 End-User and Productivity Enhancements, Internet Explorer 8
