AWSCPA ANNOUNCES NEW PRESIDENT ELECT

DAYTON, OHIO (JULY 2006) – The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants is pleased to announce the election of Jennifer Laudermilch to national president elect for the 2006-2007 fiscal year.

Jennifer is a Senior Manager at PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PwC) in the Birmingham, Alabama office and leads the PwC internal control practice for the Alabama and Tennessee markets. Prior to her relocation to Birmingham, Jennifer spent three years in the PwC National office developing the Firm's approach to 404. Prior to her tour, Jennifer worked in the PwC Atlanta office, serving clients in the Services industry.

Jennifer graduated from the University of Central Florida with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting, and from the University of Georgia with a Master's of Accountancy. Jennifer was the president of the AWSCPA Georgia affiliate in 1999-2000, and served on the Board of the Georgia affiliate as President Elect, Treasurer and Member at Large.

AWSCPA, organized in 1933, is the only national organization committed to the development and advancement of women CPAs in the accounting profession. For its members, AWSCPA provides:

- Resources and support for personal and professional development
- Opportunities for leadership participation, networking and mentoring
- Visibility and recognition for the organization and its members
