AWSCPA ANNOUNCES NEW NATIONAL VICE PRESIDENT- PUBLICATIONS

DAYTON, OHIO (JULY 2003) – The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants is pleased to announce the election of Lynne Himmer to national vice president-publications for the 2003-2004 fiscal year.

Lynne is a shareholder in the firm of Charvoz, May & Company, P.C. in Tucson, Arizona. She specializes in small business, individual and trust and estate taxation. She received her degree from the University of Arizona and was certified as a CPA in 1985.

Lynne was a founding member of the Tucson Affiliate of AWSCPA and continues to serve actively on the board, serving as president several times. She recently served as the president of the Southern Chapter of the Arizona Society of CPAs and is a member of the AICPA. In addition, she serves as treasurer on two local non-profit boards. This is her second year on the national board of AWSCPA.

AWSCPA, organized in 1933, is the only national organization committed to the development and advancement of women CPAs in the accounting profession. For its nearly 1,400 members, AWSCPA provides:

- Resources and support for personal and professional development
- Opportunities for leadership participation, networking and mentoring
- Visibility and recognition for the organization and its members
- Leadership in addressing the concerns of women in the accounting profession
