

NEWS

Contact:
Kimberly Fantaci
American Woman's Society of CPAs
Phone – (800) 297.2721
Email – info@awscpa.org

For Immediate Release

AWSCPA ANNOUNCES NEW NATIONAL PRESIDENT

DAYTON, OHIO (AUGUST 2003) – The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants is pleased to announce the election of Alexandra Miller to national president for the 2003-2004 fiscal year.

Alex is the owner of her own accounting firm in Tucson, Arizona - Alexandra L. Miller, CPA, P.C. Her tax and accounting practice specializes in individuals, estates, trusts, small businesses and the construction industry. Alex graduated from the University of Arizona with degrees in Accounting ('87) and Management ('84).

Alex has served AWSCPA on the national level as a national director, vice president-member services, and vice president-public relations. As national president elect, Alex recently chaired the 2003 National Conference in Montreal, Quebec. A member of AWSCPA since 1991, she has held several positions in the Tucson affiliate, including president and vice president of programming. Alex is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Arizona Society of Certified Public Accountants (ASCPA), the American Society of Women Accountants (ASWA-Tucson Chapter), the National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC) and the American Business Women's Association (ABWA). She is actively involved with the Educational Foundation for Women in Accounting (EFWA).

AWSCPA, organized in 1933, is the only national organization committed to the development and advancement of women CPAs in the accounting profession. For its members, AWSCPA provides:

- Resources and support for professional and personal development
- Opportunities for leadership participation, networking and mentoring
- Visibility and recognition for the organization and its members
- Leadership in addressing the concerns of women in the accounting profession

If you would like additional information about AWSCPA, visit the website at www.awscpa.org.

###