AWSCPA ANNOUNCES NEW NATIONAL VICE PRESIDENT-MEMBER SERVICES

DAYTON, OHIO (AUGUST 2003) – The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants is pleased to announce the election of Louise Teeter to national vice president – member services for the 2003-2004 fiscal year.

Louise is the sole proprietor of Louise Teeter, CPA in Marina del Rey, California since 1985. Her areas of expertise include income tax, general accounting, compilations, real estate and estate planning. Louise received her BS degree from California State University-Los Angeles. She is also a licensed real estate agent.

An active member of AWSCPA since 1986, Louise served on the national board as national director for the western region, and served two terms as vice president-publications. At the Los Angeles affiliate, Louise has served in various capacities as officer and director for several years, including recently serving as president. In March of 2000, Louise was recognized as AWSCPA of Los Angeles Member of the Year at the National Association of Women Business Owners' annual luncheon. Louise is also a member of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

AWSCPA, organized in 1933, is the only national organization committed to the development and advancement of women CPAs in the accounting profession. For its members, AWSCPA provides:

- Resources and support for professional and personal development
- Opportunities for leadership participation, networking and mentoring
- Visibility and recognition for the organization and its members
- Leadership in addressing the concerns of women in the accounting profession
