AWSCPA ANNOUNCES NEW NATIONAL VICE PRESIDENT-MARKETING

DAYTON, OHIO (AUGUST 2003) – The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants is pleased to announce the election of Stefanie Yurus to national vice president-marketing for the 2003-2004 fiscal year.

Stefanie graduated from the University of California at Berkeley with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with an emphasis in Accounting and Finance and from Golden Gate University with her Master's Degree in Finance.

A member of AWSCPA since 1993, she has held several positions in the San Francisco affiliate, including president and secretary. In 2000, Stefanie served as Conference Co-Chair for the AWSCPA National Conference that was held in San Francisco. She formerly served as Secretary on the AWSCPA National Board, and currently serves as Secretary of the Educational Foundation for Women in Accounting (EFWA).

AWSCPA, organized in 1933, is the only national organization committed to the development and advancement of women CPAs in the accounting profession. For its members, AWSCPA provides:

- Resources and support for professional and personal development
- Opportunities for leadership participation, networking and mentoring
- Visibility and recognition for the organization and its members
- Leadership in addressing the concerns of women in the accounting profession
