AWSCPA ANNOUNCES NEW NATIONAL DIRECTOR-MAL

DAYTON, OHIO (JULY 2004) – The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants is pleased to announce the election of Nikki Etherington to national director-members-at-large for 2004-2005.

Nikki Etherington is an AERS (Audit and Enterprise Risk Services) Manager at Deloitte & Touche LLP, serving clients mainly in the utility and public sector industry. Prior to relocating to the Seattle office in December 2003, she worked in the Salt Lake City office where she also served as the 2003-2004 president of the Utah affiliate of the AWSCPA. Nikki has also maintained several leadership roles in recruiting, mentoring, and other internal initiatives within Deloitte & Touche LLP.

Nikki received her Masters Degree in Accounting from Weber State University. She is also a member of other professional organizations including the AICPA.

AWSCPA, organized in 1933, is the only national organization committed to the development and advancement of women CPAs in the accounting profession. For its members, AWSCPA provides:

- ❖ Resources and support for professional and personal development
- ❖ Opportunities for leadership participation, networking and mentoring
- ❖ Visibility and recognition for the organization and its members
- ❖ Leadership in addressing the concerns of women in the accounting profession
