AWSCPA ANNOUNCES NEW NATIONAL PRESIDENT

DAYTON, OHIO (AUGUST 2004) – The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants is pleased to announce the election of Jenifer M. Goforth to national president for the 2004-2005 fiscal year.

Goforth is senior vice president and director of investor relations for Regions Financial Corporation, one of the Top 15 bank holding companies in the nation. Prior to joining Regions, she served as an audit senior manager based in the Birmingham, Ala. office of Ernst & Young, LLP.

Throughout her career, Goforth has maintained leadership roles in recruiting, mentoring and activities related to women's issues. Formerly vice president member services and national director for members at large on the national AWSCPA board, she has served on the board of directors of the Alabama affiliate for a number of years, including serving as president in 1999. She is a member of several other professional organizations and serves on the boards of various community non-profit organizations. Goforth, a CPA, is a 1993 University of Alabama graduate with her bachelor's degree in commerce and business administration.

AWSCPA, organized in 1933, is the only national organization committed to the development and advancement of women CPAs in the accounting profession. For its members, AWSCPA provides:

- ❖ Resources and support for professional and personal development
- ❖ Opportunities for leadership participation, networking and mentoring
- ❖ Visibility and recognition for the organization and its members
- ❖ Leadership in addressing the concerns of women in the accounting profession
