AWSCPA ANNOUNCES RE-ELECTION OF NATIONAL VICE PRESIDENT - PUBLICATIONS

DAYTON, OHIO (JULY 2004) – The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants is pleased to announce the re-election of Lynne Himmer to national vice president-publications for the 2004-2005 fiscal year.

Lynne is a shareholder in the firm of Charvoz, May & Company, P.C. in Tucson, Arizona. She specializes in small business, individual and trust and estate taxation. She received her degree from the University of Arizona and was certified as a CPA in 1985.

Lynne was a founding member of the Tucson Affiliate of AWSCPA and continues to serve actively on the board, serving as president several times. She recently served as the president of the Southern Chapter of the Arizona Society of CPAs and is a member of the AICPA. In addition, she serves as treasurer on two local non-profit boards. This is her third year on the national board of AWSCPA.

AWSCPA, organized in 1933, is the only national organization committed to the development and advancement of women CPAs in the accounting profession. For its members, AWSCPA provides:

- ❖ Resources and support for professional and personal development
- ❖ Opportunities for leadership participation, networking and mentoring
- ❖ Visibility and recognition for the organization and its members
- ❖ Leadership in addressing the concerns of women in the accounting profession

If you would like additional information about AWSCPA, visit the website at www.awscpa.org or contact the National Office at 800.AWSCPA1.
