AWSCPA ANNOUNCES PAST PRESIDENT

DAYTON, OHIO (JULY 2004) – The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants is pleased to announce the election of Alexandra Miller to national past president for 2004-2005.

Alexandra L. Miller is the owner of her own accounting firm in Tucson, Arizona - Alexandra L. Miller, CPA, P.C. Her tax and accounting practice specializes in individuals, estates, trusts, small businesses and the construction industry. Alex graduated from the University of Arizona with degrees in accounting and management.

Alex has served AWSCPA at the national level as national director, vice president - member services, vice president - public relations (now vice president – marketing), and most recently as president. A member of AWSCPA since 1991, she has held several positions in the Tucson affiliate, including president and vice president of programming. Alex is a member of the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA), The American Society of Women Accountants (ASWA) and the National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC). She is actively involved with the Educational Foundation for Women in Accounting (EFWA). She is also active in the Arizona Society of Certified Public Accountants.

AWSCPA, organized in 1933, is the only national organization committed to the development and advancement of women CPAs in the accounting profession. For its members, AWSCPA provides:

- ❖ Resources and support for professional and personal development
- ❖ Opportunities for leadership participation, networking and mentoring
- ❖ Visibility and recognition for the organization and its members
- ❖ Leadership in addressing the concerns of women in the accounting profession
