AWSCPA ANNOUNCES MEMBER CHOSEN FOR AICPA COMMITTEE

DAYTON, OHIO (NOVEMBER 2004) – The American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants is pleased to announce that member Alexandra Miller, CPA has been chosen for a three year term on the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) Work /Life and Women's Initiatives Executive Committee (WLWIEC). The mission of the WLWIEC is to promote within the accounting profession a work environment that provides opportunities for the successful integration of personal and professional lives, along with promoting the advancement of women to positions of leadership.

Alex is the owner of her own accounting firm in Tucson, Arizona - Alexandra L. Miller, CPA, P.C. Her tax and accounting practice specializes in individuals, estates, trusts, small businesses and the construction industry. Alex graduated from the University of Arizona with degrees in Accounting ('87) and Management ('84).

Alex has served AWSCPA on the national level for many years, including terms as national director, vice president-member services, vice president-marketing, and president. A member of AWSCPA since 1991, she has held several positions in the Tucson affiliate, including president and vice president of programming. Alex is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Arizona Society of Certified Public Accountants (ASCPA), the American Society of Women Accountants (ASWA-Tucson Chapter), the National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC) and the American Business Women's Association (ABWA).

AWSCPA, organized in 1933, is the only national organization committed to the development and advancement of women CPAs in the accounting profession. For its members, AWSCPA provides:

- ❖ Resources and support for professional and personal development
- ❖ Opportunities for leadership participation, networking and mentoring
- ❖ Visibility and recognition for the organization and its members
- ❖ Leadership in addressing the concerns of women in the accounting profession
