The AWSCPA will recognize the achievements of deserving individuals in the accounting profession with the Society's 2007-2008 National Awards Program. The awards will be presented at the Joint National Conference in Dallas, Texas, October 28-30, 2008.

The Woman CPA of the Year Award was established to recognize an individual for outstanding contributions to the accounting profession. Criteria for this award will be professional accomplishments, demonstrated leadership, and contributions, which further the advancement of women in the profession. Such contributions may include but are not limited to participating in successful mentoring relationships, implementing flexible work schedules or other family-friendly arrangements, advocating programs that promote women within the accounting industry, and supporting diversity programs. Nominations should include background information on the nominee and the reason why she should be selected.

The Educator of the Year Award recognizes excellence in teaching in the accounting field by a faculty member of a two or four-year college.

The Public Service Award recognizes a member who provides a significant contribution of time and talent to public services outside of the accounting profession.

The Woman of Courage Award recognizes a member who displays achievement and dedication personally and/or professionally under difficult conditions.

Self-nominations are welcome for all categories.
